COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

We have now acquired all rights-of-way, except one, for the sewage disposal system. The one we do not have is being held up on a technicality over ownership. This, we expect, will soon be resolved.

The town crew has cleared the right of way from Vernon Street to Crescent Park School. A force main will be laid up over the hill to allow the sewage to be pumped up from the Vernon Street area to where it will run by gravity down to the treatment plant site.

The Assessors plan to meet every Monday night from now until they finish the assessing. They also plan to work Saturdays visiting various places in town that they feel should be inspected.

Arrangements are being made to hire a firm to bring a street sweeper in to clean all the streets. Some have not been done for several years. With the extra work our crew will have this year making preparations for the sewage construction it will be impossible for them to accomplish much with the equipment we have.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

With ascending sun and warming rains, the slumbering seed is throwing aside its winter shroud. Across the land the colorful pageantry of another spring will move on wings of song. The earth is alive with beauty.

When robins sing the vespers of the day,
When low-flung crimson fades along the west,
When warm night voices whisper winter's death,
And maples stand, in scarlet mantles dressed,
On rocky hills, and green pulls off the gray
Of barren boughs, and southern-scented breath
Comes back across the empty fields to say
That old-new, deathless word we call the spring,
'Tis then I fling all winter thoughts away
And let my heart with every robin sing.

R. A. Teeter

May, you are tender promise so please come true.

The sun floods gently the eastern windows as it comes up, and when it sets casts a soft light behind the supper table.

The buds are folded tightly on the elms, the wild geese were seen so near that I could almost hear their beating wings, the ducks quack their morning greeting from the channel down front.

Already a boy has been along the brook with his fishpole and a special light in his eye.

The convention on the telephone wire has begun. Their Party? I know not: who cares? The swallows have come! They are a delightful sight circling in the air, the sun playing on their irridescent greenish-blue backs and their breasts a gleaming pure white. These social gatherers line the wires in close rows. The male utters his sweet little warbling twitter. They are fighting for, and choosing their homes.

Tail - Bobber, Phoebe perches near my bedroom window and pronounces (for teacher) his name over and over. I wonder if he plans to nest above the window as he did last season.

Man about town, Flicker, has been giving his friendly knock; calling our attention to his presence.

I miss the blue-bird this "Soft as an Angel's Wing." I never even saw one dreamily floating before the old elms in the bright sun all last summer.

Of course, our native vocalist, the song sparrow, greets us at all times of the day.

"I like the quick bright movement of wild things
The unexpected flash of hidden wings." Grace Noll Crowell

The earth teems now with its many miracles. A new queen goes to the throne. She is young, she is strong, and she is beautiful. Her name? Nature. Her royal robe is the sky so blue occasionally trimmed in shadows of white or gray.

The outdoors comes in and there is little indoors.

Emerson said, "The difference between landscape and landscape is small, but there is a great difference in the beholder!" There are many things of great beauty in the world which so many of us miss yet with an observant eye the world is full of hidden beauty.

Harsh hitting gave host Telstar a 14-3 Mountain Valley Baseball Conference triumph over Livermore High Saturday, April 29.

The girls left Logan Airport on December 31, arriving in Paris the 1st of January. After a tour of Paris, they all set out to reach their various destinations the following day. Two of the group, Wendy Ault, and Sandra Thomas, visited with their French "families" in Draveil, France, for 10 days before traveling to a boarding school called Ecole des Roches, Verneuil sur Avre, Eure, France. This school is in the province of Normandie — no mountains, but beautiful country-side. The long school day (8:00 a. m. to 6:30 p. m.) gave a chance for unusual courses along with the conventional ones—a course in book-binding, for example. Wendy had a chance to play some basketball, too. After the stay in France ended these two spent time in Italy, on the Adriatic coast, and in London before returning home.

Audrey Schneider stayed with a family named Blanchet outside of Grenoble. She was able to visit St. Gervais, Geneve, Switzerland, and Paris. Again, beautiful country-side and a wonderful chance to learn a language by living in it.

Juanita Bean traveled to St. Etienne, a large (375,000) industrial city. She attended a private parochial school of 3,500 students called Lycee Simone Weill. She had a full 33 hour a week schedule taking all the courses a normal French student would take. "Chummy" traveled a great deal and saw country as well as city life.

Judy Jenness travelled from Paris to St. Gervais-les-Bains, in the province of Haute Savoie which is located at the Swiss and Italian borders. It is located near Chamonix in the middle of the most beautiful section of the Alps (quote from Judy). She spent 14 hours a week in French literature courses plus two hours a week in the English class of her French brother. She, too, was able to travel, alone, and with Audrey and "Chummy."

A wonderful time was had by all (hopefully they'll be able to return [illegible] Thursday in the future).

TELSTAR R. H. S. NEWS

COUNCIL COMMENTS

The cast of "Arsenic and Old Lace" would like to thank Verna Hyde for the use of her Victorian set.

The Student Council is now engaged in a student exchange program with Livermore High School. This is another step towards the Council's efforts to gain knowledge and understanding of other school systems.

Tuesday morning, at an all-school assembly, the chorus from the University of Maine, Portland-Gorham, sang a selection of both serious and pop music. A member of this group, Linda Hathaway, is a former student of Telstar. Two years ago, Linda delighted many with her portrayal of the Wicked Witch in the Telstar Drama Club's presentation of "The Wizard of Oz." Linda is a music major at the University.

It's that time of year again—Elections! And not just presidential either. In the spring of every school year, the student body votes for those persons from his class who he would like to represent him to the Student Council. Soon campaign posters and speeches will be seen and heard. The voting will be held in the very near future. Watch this column for the results. Roberta J. Cretson
